

Technology Commons Policy

Policy Information

Issuing Office

Jerry Falwell Library

Affected Parties

Liberty University Community

Policy Language

The Technology Commons contains spaces that are flexible and able to facilitate both individual and collaborative projects using a variety of computer platforms with the latest productivity software. Advanced computing inquiries may be referred to Information Technology. Computer use should follow policies as established by Information Technology.

Policy Rationale

The mission of the Technology Commons in the Jerry Falwell Library is to provide customers with the tools, spaces, and services necessary to reach their academic goals.

Definition of Glossary Terms

None specified

Procedural Information

Procedures

The Technology Commons provides customers with tools, spaces, and service necessary to reach their academic goals. In addition to the Technology Commons staff, the Learning Commons staff is also able to assist with basic and intermediate computing, including: network and printer connectivity and solutions, Microsoft Office, Adobe Creative Suite, and web applications.

Sanctions

Handled on a case-by-case basis.

Exceptions

None